Questioning Brian's Big Question Lab

Turn a wonder into a small, safe investigation

BRIAN'S: QUESTIONS

Questions can begin with a tiny observation. There is no need to know the answer straight away.

| I noticed... | I wonder... |
| --- | --- |
| What did you see, hear or feel? | What question popped into your mind? |

Pick a question starter

[ ] What if...?

[ ] How does...?

[ ] Why might...?

[ ] What could happen next?

[ ] What is different?

[ ] What would I like to find out?

My big question:

A safe way to explore it with a grown-up:

Some questions need a book, a conversation, time, or an adult to help. Wondering is already a brilliant start.
